

CRISTIAN CALDERON CARTIN
Intellectual Property

Studies: Graduated by the Faculty of Law, Universidad de Costa Rica, 2000 Lawyer and Public Notary. Intellectual Property Summer Institute, Franklin Pierce
Law Center (New Hampshire, USA) 2004. Winner of the scholarship FPLC-ASIPI, 2004 with the essay titled "Costa Rica's experience about the PCT implementation (1997-2004)"

Languages: Spanish and English.

He has written some opinion articles about Intellectual Property topics. He has participated in jurisdictional and administrative processes defending the rights of famous trademarks as "Juan Valdez" (Colombian coffee) and "Pelé" (Brazilian soccer player). He is managing a Firm's program for the education and implementation of Intellectual Property rights' protection for small businesses.

"My participation in Gonzalez Uribe has enriched really my practice in Law; it has not been limited to Intellectual Property's practice, due to the Firm's structure, there is a fabulous dynamism through all its Departments which has allowed me growing up in my professional practice as well as a human being. Besides, there is a permanent support for the education of all its members which has permitted my professional preparation".