

LINDAY CORDOBA
Litigation Department, Judicial Collections Area

Incorporated on 2002.

Studies: Autonomous University of Central America (A.U.C.A), Attorney at Law and Public Notary 1995-2001, "Professional Ethics course" as a requirement of incorporation at The Costa Rican Bar Association 2002, Certificate TOEIC (Test of International English for Communication) developed by Educational Testing Service® (ETS®) 2006; "Collection Procedures" given in the Costa Rican Bar association, 2006. Ample experience in notary matters. Nowadays she is coursing a Master's Degree on Commercial Law at the University Interamerica 2007.

Languages: Spanish and English.

Experience: Professional practice in civil and commercial law and legal affairs for International banks and local entities of long trajectory in Costa Rica. Experience in general commercial litigation areas, specialize in collections of all types of debts with different guarantees: fiduciary, mortgages, pledges, and credit card interest. In González & Uribe, she manages the external judicial collection procedures for a regional private bank.